

Garden Party by Yellow Roze

High-end pieces, not prices

After years of experience in the modeling and interior design industries, Roslyn Mitchell combined her expertise, personal style and attention to detail to create Garden Party by Yellow Roze, a unique antique shop in Englewood.

Staff Photo by Joe Camporale

After traveling around the world and collecting a variety of beautiful items for many years, Roslyn decided to share her special findings. From Italian hand-painted vases to vanity trays and antique-style teapots, Garden Party offers hand-picked pieces that are hard to find anywhere else in the area.

Whether you are looking for the perfect piece of antique furniture to complete a room or a classic frame to give as a gift, Roslyn offers high-end and brand name pieces at an affordable price. Decanters, Murano glassware, Versace dinnerware sets and estate jewelry, among more, create an elegant, graceful and stylish atmosphere that can be brought into any home.

In addition to all of the wonderful pieces the store has to offer, stop by with your favorite vase to have Roslyn make you a personalized silk floral arrangement. Bring your ideas or come with an open mind and Roslyn will create an arrangement perfect for your color schemes and style. If you are looking for more than flowers, Yellow Roze Interior Design is also available to glamorously and elegantly decorate your home.

To obtain a piece of Roslyn's personal touch yourself, stop by 5 N. Dean St., Englewood. For more information, call 201-871-3900 or visit www.whatamall.net/gardenparty.htm.